

DURING THESE CHALLENGING TIMES, WE ARE HERE FOR YOU.

As individual states and counties shut down due to the COVID-19 crisis, The Hilliard Corporation has remained operational as an "essential business" — providing various products for the manufacturing industry.

We are following all safety protocols in our manufacturing facilities, and many of our office personnel are working remotely from home to continue to support your business. We are able to provide you with sales, customer service, and back-office support seamlessly.

Together, we can work through these challenging times.

Thank you and stay safe,
